

HRIBF IRIS2 Project Status

Raymond Juras, ORNL

The Oak Ridge National Laboratory IRIS2 project, which began in early 2006, will provide a second injector of radioactive ion species for the tandem accelerator. This talk will describe how the second Injector for Radioactive Ion Species (IRIS2) will enhance HRIBF facility capabilities and our progress in implementing the injector system.